

Announcing the
CSEA Capital Region
2008 Daniel X Campbell Memorial Scholarship

CSEA's Capital Region will award a scholarship to a 2008 graduating high school senior who intends to pursue a career in communications, labor relations or a related field. The scholarship will be for $750.00.

This scholarship has been established in Dan Campbell's memory. For almost 30 years he worked as a Communications Associate in CSEA's Capital Region Office. Dan was popularly known as the "Spokesman" for his high profile in the Capital District as the voice of CSEA and working families. His commitment to unionism as well as his personal values and character made him a beloved figure who still touches the lives of all who know him. He was truly someone who would rather light a candle than curse the darkness.

To be eligible, the applicant must meet the following criteria:

- A 2008 high school graduate.
- A parent or guardian who is a member of CSEA's Capital Region.
- Accepted in a course of study in communications, labor relations or a labor related interest such as: history, economics, law, political science, sociology or journalism at an accredited institution of higher education in New York State.

The applicant must submit a completed application form by May 1st, 2008 to:

CSEA Capital Region
c/o Patty Whiteman, Chair
Education Committee,
1 Lear Jet Lane, Suite 2
Latham NY 12110

Application must be accompanied by:

- An official transcript and SAT scores.
- A short essay on the topic: Please choose a man or woman in Labor's History and describe his/her impact on the present day labor movement.
- Please include acceptance letter from college/university which states your curriculum
